Dear Sirs,

The performance of Eleanor Collons on the "Take Thirty" show of August 17, 1976, was such a delight that we are blessing the day we had cable installed. That one show will more than compensate for several months' charges.

Congratulations to everyone connected to the show! (the musicians seemed to enjoy Eleanor's singing as much as we did). It was such an excellent program that we wonder why it could not be shown on prime time. Everyone we thought of calling in our excitement was working. At my urging, my husband rushed home from the office, missing all but the last song. Even that one song was worth his risking a speeding ticket, he insisted.

The selections sung on that particular half hour were so choice that we would love to see a rerun. In addition, we would recommend regular presentation of Eleanor Collins at an hour when many more people can view and thrill to this beautiful person. Eleanor's radiance could uplift millions on both sides of the international border.

Thank you for a wonderful show! We look forward to a repeat of this exceptionally impressive production. You are welcome to our spontaneous slogan: MORE! MORE! OF ELEANOR!!!

Yours enthusiastically,
